Krishna Das, Breath of the Heart

Personal Review: Breath of the Heart by Krishna Das
This is my absolute favorite Krishna Das mantra CD.

I've had the CD in my extensive mantra collection since it first came out, and return to it time & again. Like all music that is "Krishna" based, the music conveys a deep devotional as well as joyful, "high" quality. There is a wonderful chorus that sounds like there are children in it; but children or not, the chorus complements a rousing instrumental section that gives the "feel" of a spontaneous performance.

I think many people would enjoy this CD, not just mantra fans because it has a great beat & contemporary sound.

This is a wonderful way to learn mantra singing.
Real good music.
